

SUMMER 2023 STUDENT GUIDE

A LEVEL EXAMINATIONS AND RESIT OPPORTUNITIES

We understand that students' learning has been disrupted in recent years. We will continue to support you if you are re-sitting your A Levels in 2023.

Some students will only need to take A2 units to achieve an A Level in 2023.

YOU WILL ONLY NEED TO TAKE A2 UNITS TO ACHIEVE AN A LEVEL IN 2023 IF:

- you were awarded an A Level in the same specification in summer 2022 and are resitting in summer 2023 (this can include a U), or
- you were awarded an AS qualification in the same specification in summer 2020 (Centre Assessed Grade) or summer 2021 (Centre Determined Grade) and have deferred your A Levels until summer 2023, or
- you were awarded an A Level qualification in the same specification in summer 2020 (Centre Assessed Grade) or summer 2021 (Centre Determined Grade) and wish to resit in summer 2023, or
- you completed AS units in 2019 or earlier and therefore have banked units to carry forward. This is subject to the resit rules outlined in our Guide to resits.

YOU WILL NEED TO TAKE ALL AS AND A2 UNITS IN 2023 (OR HAVE BANKED UNITS TO CARRY FORWARD) IF:

- you did not cash-in your A Level units in summer 2022, or
- you were not awarded an AS qualification in the same specification in summer 2020 or summer 2021 (this can include a U), or
- you are taking both AS and A Level units for the first time (e.g. completing an A Level in one year).

IF YOU SAT AS UNITS IN 2022, THE RESULTS WILL CONTRIBUTE TO YOUR A LEVEL RESULTS IN 2023

If you are resitting in summer 2023, please talk to staff at your school or college to ensure that you are covering the correct units.
