

PAID WORK OPPORTUNITY

Who is hiring?

Changing Corporate Culture Ltd (CCC) is a small business helping to make big changes. Our company helps other organisations to improve their products, work environments and customer experience, ensuring inclusion for all.

What's the role?

On 14th April 2026, CCC has been asked to deliver some workshops to a Welsh college on racism and misogyny (dislike and/or ingrained hatred of women). We are looking for one or two young people to co-create and help deliver the sessions.

You will be working with Charlotte Ajomale-Evans – the lead consultant at CCC – on these sessions.

This role is ideal if you:

- Have a keen interest in trans and cis women's rights
- Have lived experience as a person from East Asian or South Asian heritage or Hindu, Buddhist or Muslim belief systems
- Are comfortable speaking in front of a group of people
- Want to improve understanding in college staff around issues facing women and girls in education

What is involved

6 hours of work:

- 3.5 hours planning time (hosted online or in person)
- 2 hours delivery time
- 30 minutes set up and set down time

Payment amount: £15 per hour

Please email charlotte@changingcorporateculture.co.uk to express an interest or to ask any questions. Please use subject line 'College misogyny session, 14/04/2026 – (your name)'.

Closing date: Midday (12:00pm) 16th March 2026.
